DISASTERS ON THE LAKE.

BLINDING SNOW STORMS AND WHISTLING WINDS.

Number of Vessels Lost and No Hope for the Missing Crews—The Great Damage Done to the Lake Shipping Interests—Impossible to Estimate the Loss.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 26.—Great damage has been done to the shipping of the upper lakes by the gale which has been raging since Sunday. The velocity of the wind on the Detroit river reached sixty miles an hour, with an average of forty miles. The Plymouth and Bradley broke in two off Presque Isle, and the crews were saved by the Portage life-saving crew. Two boats are given up for lost on Lake Huron, the barges Dolphin and Morris, whose lines parted from the propeller Oswegatchie. Several other boats are missing, but it is believed they will report soon.

Nate Stewart, a marine reporter, had a thrilling adventure here. He went out in a small boat to board the propeller Eagan, which was towing like an eggshell. Stewart's small boat got between the Eagan and consort and was smashed to splinters. He saved himself by jumping overboard.

Specials from Marquette say the schooner George Sherman is a wreck off that point, and the Alva Bradley is on near there. The Lawrence is also probably lost. The wind blew from the northwest forty-five miles an hour, and a blinding snowstorm raged. Large numbers of vessels are weatherbound at the "Boo" and cannot leave until the storm abates.

It is reported that all the men on the Plymouth have been taken off by a life-saving crew. No word has yet come from the Bradley. It is learned that seven vessels have found shelter from the gale back of Grand Island. No doubt is on an estimate that the seven are the David Westgate, J. J. Webb, St. Lawrence, Reindeer, Oriole and Mahanah, and the new safety relieves great anxiety.

Reports from Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.—The wind storm which has raged on Lake Erie since Sunday has lashed the water into foam. The schooner Zach Chandler, from Ashtabula to Ecanaba, with 1,300 tons of coal, left Sunday morning, and when near here at night lost all her canvas. She drifted on a bar off Noble Station, east of here, and the crew lashed themselves to the rigging. When daylight broke six of them went ashore, but could not pull back to get the captain and others. A life-saving crew after much work saved the remaining ones on the ship. They were numb with the cold and exposure, and were cared for by farmers. The vessel was worth $12,500 and insured for $10,000. She will probably be a total loss.

At Ashtabula the James F. Joy sunk in twenty feet of water. The crew escaped. The schooner was worth $8,000. She was iron ore laden. The loss is put at $30,000, and the insurance at $4,500.

The propeller J. F. Fay and the tug Ruby are wrecked off Erie. Both crews escaped.

From Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Details of the recent great storm come in slowly, but enough has been received to make it apparent that the damage is very large. The list of accidents, as gathered at the docks and insurance offices, aggregates fifteen, while there are numberless minor mishaps. The loss has not been estimated, but will undoubtedly be large, as several of the wrecks are of large and costly vessels. The loss of life, as far as is known, numbers seven.

A dispatch from Mackinaw this morning says that the storm is still raging there and many vessels have sought shelter in the harbor. It is said to be the worst storm ever experienced in the straits.

A Sault Ste. Marie dispatch says that the passage has been blocked by the grounding of the steam barge George Spencer with consort Tremble and Ironton during yesterday's storm.

Loss of the Propeller Delaware.

CHEBOYAN, Mich., Oct. 26.—The propeller Delaware, of the Erie & Western Transportation line, bound down with grain and flour, was caught in Sunday night's terrible storm on Lake Huron and ran ashore near Hammond's bay, fourteen miles below here. She is now in bad shape and will undoubtedly be a total loss. Both anchors are broken, and she is badly raised amidships, and probably broken in two and full of water. Her deck load can be saved and part of the cargo in the hold. She is exposed to east and northerly winds, and is likely to break up completely at the first shift of the winds. The Delaware hails from Erie, is valued at $100,000, and is rated A 1-2.

Steamer Lost and Crew Saved.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Oct. 26.—The steamer Campana arrived here this morning, having on board all the crew of the steamer City of Owen Sound which was wrecked near Clapperton Island lighthouse, during yesterday's gale. The crew all escaped from the wreck in life-boats and had very narrow escapes from being lost. The Owen Sound was built at Owen Sound in 1875 and re-built last spring. She was owned by Smith & Co., of Toronto, and was valued at $20,000.

Probably Fifteen Lives Lost.

G AND HAVEN, Mich., Oct. 26.—The steam barge Argonaut and crew were thought to be lost. She blew signals of distress Sunday, but could not be helped, as she could not get over the outer bar. Her crew is fifteen men.

Mark Sank and Crew Drowned.

PORT DALHOUSIE, Ont., Oct. 26.—The bark Oriental went down near here yesterday morning. She was bound from Charleston to Toronto with 700 tons of coal, and was in tow of the Scotia. The crew of five have not been heard of since.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Speaker Randall is sick at Philadelphia. There were a number of inquiries for him at the American hotel yesterday, but to all the clerk announced that the congressman could not leave his home by reason of illness.

A VEILED WOMAN.

A Sensational Report That Lucilla Mabbitt Was Seen at Delphi.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 26.—The letter which has been going the rounds of the press, in which Governor Gray, thoroughly fastidious Sheriff Van Gundy for not taking better precautions to protect Amer Green from the lynchers has not yet been received by the sheriff. Mr. Van Gundy has prepared an answer to the one in print, which he will send to the governor in case he officially receives the latter's letter. In it he claims to have heard no intimations of the lynching, as the crime of which Green was accused occurred fifteen miles from Delphi, on the border of the county. He then censures the governor for pardoning one of the leaders of the "Jap Choon" gang, who was doing time in a penitentiary.

Considerable excitement was occasioned last night by the report that a veiled woman closely resembling Lucilla Mabbitt, the person alleged to have been murdered by Green, was seen to alight from an east bound train Saturday. A trunk from Fort Worth, Tex., followed her on the next train. The town is thronged with people anxiously inquiring if the woman had been seen and if it was really Lucilla Mabbitt. Nothing more has been heard from the veiled woman, and it is probable that the whole thing is a canard.

Burial of Amer Green.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 26.—The body of Amer Green, the noted desperado lynched at Delphi, Ind., for the supposed murder of Lucilla Mabbitt, was brought to this county and buried in the Hebrew grave-yard, eight miles from this city, yesterday, beside his sister. Green's mother resides there, and believes the story of her son—that the girl is still alive. There were few mourners at the grave.

Insane in the Penitentiary.

MARSHALL, Ill., Oct. 26.—Westfield, this county, was treated to a big sensation Sunday. J. R. Young, the recently appointed Methodist minister, arrived there last week, and while superintending the Sunday school suddenly began to use profane and abusive language and seemed about to demolish the entire gathering. He was promptly secured, as it was seen that he had become a raving maniac. He was at once brought to this city and confined in jail. He sang religious songs during the entire trip, and since his incarceration has made the jail resound with gospel hymns, singing constantly. He is quite a talented young minister, but has been subject to such spells recently. Indeed, he was at one time an inmate of an insane asylum. The cause of his sudden attack was religious excitement.

Fought to a Finish.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Con. Dugan, of Brooklyn, and Frank Steele, of Boston, fought to a finish at West Troy this morning for $500 and the light-weight championship belt of New York. Steele weighed 122 pounds and Dugan 123. For the first eight rounds the fighting was tame. Steele seemed to be in the better condition. Dugan showed signs of weakness in the ninth. The fighting became fierce and the hitting was very heavy in the succeeding rounds, Dugan making a fine recovery. In the fourteenth round Steele got in several heavy blows, and following up Dugan, threw him over a bench and struck him several times while down. The referee got between the men and declared Dugan the winner on a foul.

Supposed to Be a Hoosier Murderer.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 26.—Detective Elliott this morning arrested Simon P. Cooper, alias James Davis, in this city, on the charge of having murdered one Stewart during an election quarrel at Florence, Indiana, in 1884. The accused has been living in Chattanooga two years, and made saloons his headquarters. He applied for a writ of habeas corpus. The case will be heard Saturday. Authorities at Vevay, Ind., have been telegraphed to send a man here to identify the prisoner. Cooper, alias Davis, claims he is innocent of the charge. He is in jail.

James C. Flood Dying.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—James C. Flood, the bonanza king, is reported to be at death's door. He has not yet recovered—probably never will recover—from the shock incident to the great wheat corner and the Nevada bank troubles. He is a physical wreck. Occasionally he appears to be in fair health, but a relapse speedily follows. He has grown much worse in the last few days, and alarming rumors about his condition are now current. Mr. Flood is now residing with his family in the brown stone mansion on California avenue.

Got the Man of Her Choice.

BRAZIL, Oct. 26.—Miss Jennie Stewart, the bride who suddenly and mysteriously disappeared a few minutes before the hour for her marriage to Mr. A. B. Warren, of Evansville, has been found, and the report that she had been married to another man Saturday night has been confirmed. She was married at a neighbor's house Saturday night to Mr. L. M. Johnson, of Ohio. Her explanation is that Johnson was her choice and that the old folks were wanting to marry her to Mr. Warren against her will.

A Reception to Joe Davis.

MAON, Ga., Oct. 26.—Jefferson Davis, his wife and daughter Winnie were given a royal reception here last night. Today Mrs. and Miss Davis received the ladies of this section of the south at the park. The attendance at the fair is exceptionally large, a majority having come to see the ex-Confederate president.

MANY STARVING MINERS.

THE LEHIGH COAL REGION IN THE MIDST OF A GREAT CONFLICT.

Hundreds of Idle Men Standing Around While Their Families Are Starving. Those Who Are Able Rapidly Leaving for Other Parts—Other Labor News.

HAZELTON, Pa., Oct. 26.—The Lehigh coal region, of which this town of ten thousand inhabitants is the center, is undoubtedly in the midst of one of the greatest conflicts that can take place between capital and labor. Twenty-five thousand men have now been on a strike for nearly two months, because of the refusal of the operators to increase their wages, and there is no likelihood of any settlement. The owners of the mines refuse to receive any committees of the Knights of Labor for a conference. The men are stubborn and determined to hold out.

A visitor to Hazelton yesterday beheld hundreds of idle men standing on the street corners. This town depends principally on the miners for its prosperity. When they had work money was plenty and Hazelton merchants did a prosperous business. Now many of them have decided to refuse their former patrons further credit to save themselves from bankruptcy and ruin. The Knights of Labor convention at Minneapolis, refused to help the strikers, and the money coming in for their relief is a mere trifle compared with what they need. They are on the eve of a severe winter, and from all over the Lehigh region come terrible stories of suffering and impending starvation. The country is barren of wood, and the suffering families have a hard time getting coal since the mines are not working, although millions of tons are buried at their very feet. Some portions of the Lehigh region are entirely deserted and whole rows of miners' cabins are empty.

Miners without families are leaving in droves, and nearly all the Hungarians, Poles and Italians, several thousand in number have disappeared. Those who have large families are unable to leave and are compelled to remain with suffering wives and children.

At Jedd, on the outskirts of Hazelton, the minister of the primitive Methodist church has resigned, all of his parishioners except a few having left the town. Noway was a strike conducted with such unanimity. Not a miner is working at the seventy collieries in the district. It is estimated that operators and men have lost so far $1,000,000, and that by spring over $4,000,000 will have been lost. The 41,000 miners of the Reading Railroad company have been granted the 8 per cent increase, and will not strike.

A blight has fallen over the Lehigh region by reason of the strike, and conservative citizens feel the approach of terrible times, as the strike continues into the cold season, with prospects of a lawless element spreading terror through the region. Through the store-order system and docking of miners' wages, the men have been frightfully robbed, and against this they are also striking. Many of the mines are filling up with water, and old breasts and workings are caving in, owing to the timbering and propping having been so long neglected. The damage already done amounts to $1,000,000. The aspect of affairs is dreary and critical.

HE CAME HOME SICK.

Finney, the Missing Trustee, Tells the Story of His Wanderings.

TRIPOLI, Ind., Oct. 26.—H. C. Finney, the trustee, who so mysteriously disappeared about ten days ago, has returned, and is lying at his residence in a precarious condition. He tells a strange story of himself. He says that on the Friday night when last seen in Indianapolis, instead of coming home he went to the English hotel and remained there until the next morning, and started for the depot to come home. When he reached the depot he was so much worse that he gave some one money to purchase him a ticket for home, and at that point his recollection, he says, fails him.

When he regained consciousness he was at a little station in the northern part of Illinois. As soon as he ascertained his location he had himself placed on a train for Indianapolis, and thence he came home. During his absence the firm of which he was a member has made an assignment, and he comes home to find himself out of business, and a suspicious community watching his every movement. It is said that he will no longer look after the business of the office, but that G. H. Gifford, one of his bondsmen, will manage it for him. His condition is still critical, but ultimate recovery probable.

Blinky Morgan's Trial.

RAVENNA, O., Oct. 26.—As the "Blinky" Morgan murder trial progresses, the excitement here increases. Reports from surrounding cities state that notorious and desperate crooks from all over the country are crowding about here, and it is feared some attempt will be made to free Morgan and Coughlin and Robinson, his alleged accomplices in the Hulligan murder. The recent kissing of Morgan by the Cleveland woman has provoked much discussion, and yesterday the sheriff received a letter from Canton, signed by "One that wants no more blood shed," saying: "Have your eyes open when that woman and 'Blinky' kiss each other. They are only waiting." A rumor was issued that there should be no more kissing. The guard around the court house and jail has been doubled, and it is thought Governor Foraker will be asked for a company of militia.

Saw Mill Burned to the Ground.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26.—The saw mill and planing mill of Mr. C. G. Loomis, situated about three miles north of Little Rock, Ark., on the Iron Mountain railroad, at Loomis station, was consumed by fire last night. The cause was fire in the woods, and so fire was hauled in and so rapid their advance that Mr. Loomis and his men were compelled to seek safety in flight. Six pitched and dry were the woods around the mill that the flames ran through the tops of the trees, devouring everything in their way. About $150,000 worth of fine lumber was destroyed, with all the buildings about them.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

A Mercantile Crash at Cincinnati—Bankers Fail at Boston.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—The first heavy failure recorded in Cincinnati for several weeks occurred when a deed of assignment was filed by W. J. & J. H. Fye, wholesale grocers at 26 and 28 East Pearl street. The firm made W. L. Granger assignee. Their debts are fully $35,000 and their assets $30,000. Preferences were given to two creditors only by chattel mortgages as follows: Metropolitan National bank, $7,534.16; J. W. Fye, $7,540.

W. J. Fye, senior member of the firm, said: "Recent heavy losses in bad accounts, and inability to borrow money to meet our bills was the only cause of our collapse." Both of the members of the firm are young men, Walter, aged thirty-one, and John, aged twenty-nine. They have been very industrious and attentive to business, and their failure was totally unexpected. It will cause general regret among business men.

Boston Bankers Fail.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Perkins, Dupee & Co., bankers, No. 49 State street, successors to Charles A. Swart & Co., have failed. The firm have been "long" of the market. They make no statement.

A member of the firm stated to-day that the liabilities which were all unsecured, would scarcely reach $40,000, while the assets were about $20,000. The direct cause of the failure was the depression in Massachusetts Central and Union Pacific, on which shares the firm was long on margins. It is stated that the creditors will not realize more than 50 cents on the dollar, and there is no prospect of the firm resuming.

Crookery Assignment.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—B. C. Allen & Co., who are in the crockery business at No. 23 Washington street, made a voluntary assignment this morning to Samuel B. Chase. The assets are about $15,000, and the liabilities $10,000.

ANARCHISTS' LAST HOPE.

Their Counsel Telegraphs Discouraging News From Washington.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Moses Solomon, one of the counsel for the Anarchists, telegraphed his clients from Washington last evening that there was little hope that a writ of error would be granted by the supreme court, and that the whole matter would come back to this state to rest with the governor. The seven men held a conference as soon as they were liberated, and seemed to feel more depressed than any time since they were incarcerated. Parsons afterwards admitted to a reporter that Solomon's despatch had almost destroyed their last hope, and they were ready for anything now.

Nina Van Zant was present when the news came. Spies told her the contents of the message.

"Well, if you die," said Nina, "You will not die alone. I will go into the grave with you."

Ling shed tears, and the wife of Engel, who was present, was almost prostrated by the news.

Slain by Three Negroes.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 26.—News from Calhoun county is to the effect that a white man named Parrish shot and killed three negroes a few days since. MISS ANNA M. FRAZER.

The new postal law and regulations have gone into effect. Among the important changes the Postmaster General has made in his revision that the public is interested in is that postal cards are now returnable. The section relating to postal cards says they may be forwarded on request, and should be returned to the writer from the office or address when unclaimed.

"A RED-HEADED girl went into a Cincinnati store the other day, expecting that everybody would rush to the door to look for a white horse," says the Bourbon News, "but there was one snave clerk who stood on the burning deck whence all but him had fled, and caught her in the act of shop-lifting. This should be a warning to other clerks who are prone to give away to superstition."

The costumes to be worn in "The Honeymoon," which is to be given at the opera house to-night, are said to be exceedingly rich and lovely—finer, perhaps, than ever before seen in Maysville. The Gilbert Comedy Company, by whom the comedy drama will be rendered, gave a splendid entertainment last night, and will do all in their power to make this evening's programme an enjoyable one.

THE Third Assistant Postmaster General has sent to Postmaster Riley, of Cincinnati, an order that is important to all business men who send merchandise by mail. It is to the effect that in sending fourth-class matter the only thing that can be put in the package is the address of the sender and the address of the party it is directed to. Any other words in the bundle will cause it to be rated the same as letters and first-class matter.

Receiving Their Reward.

Among the passengers on the train due here at 8 o'clock last evening was an excursion party consisting of a happy lot of fifteen youngsters. They were in charge of a pleasant-looking, gray-haired gentleman, and the entire party took passage on the J. H. Hillman for Cincinnati shortly after their arrival here.

It was learned afterwards that the elderly-looking gentleman was J. A. J. Lee, of Owingsville, Bath County. He is President of the Owingsville Exchange Bank, and is one of the wealthy citizens of the place. He takes an active interest in church work, and has charge of a class in one of the Sunday schools. The lady whom he had in charge last night is this class of his, and the present excursion has been looked forward to for the past twelve months. A year ago last Sunday he told them if they would be prompt and regular in their attendance for twelve months he would take them to see the Zoological Garden, and other points of interest at the Queen City. The promise had the desired effect, and the pupils are enjoying themselves at the expense of their kind-hearted teacher.

Robertson—Hook.

The marriage of Miss Lona Hook to Mr. Edward Robertson took place at Sharon Church, Bracken County, this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. E. E. Bigger officiating. The bridal party left immediately afterwards for Louisville where the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride is a daughter of Charles Hook, one of Bracken's wealthy and influential farmers. She is a granddaughter of the late Isaac Reynolds, of Minerva.

The groom is a son of the late Dr. W. H. Robertson, and is one of Bracken's promising young farmers.

"Queena."

The Gilbert Comedy Company appeared at the opera house last night in "Queena," and scored a decided success. The audience was not as large as the company deserved, but the entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Gilbert and Mr. Huntley were called before the curtain several times by applause which greeted the splendid rendition of the characters they assumed. Their support was excellent throughout.

To-night the company will appear in "The Honeymoon," and they deserve a crowded house.

Bartholdi's Statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" will be a reminder of personal liberty for ages to come. On just as sure a foundation has Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" been placed, and it will stand through the cycles of time as a monument to the physical emancipation of thousands, who by its use have been relieved from consumption, consumptive night sweats, bronchitis, coughs, spitting blood, weak lungs, and other throat and lung affections.

WASHINGTON CITY NEWS

A NEW SOURCE OF SUGAR FOR THE UNITED STATES.

America a Better Market for the Sugar Planters Than England—A Dividend of Twenty-Five Per Cent for the Fidelity Depositors—Other Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The department of state has received a dispatch, dated September 2, from the consul at Demerara, which says that the planters in that colony are abandoning the manufacture of crystals for the English market, and turning their attention to the production of dark sugars for the United States, for the following reasons: The Guinea planters cannot compete with the American refiners, but can produce raw sugars as cheaply as the planters of any other country, and the Americans pay the highest prices for this class of sugars.

Last year British Guiana exported 124,233 hogheads of sugar to England, and 47,233 hogheads to the United States. The estimates of exports for the present year are 70,000 to 80,000 hogheads. The increase in this trade has resulted in withdrawing steamers plying between England and Demerara, and large ships in the Calcutta trade, from their regular routes to carry sugars to the United States. The consul, therefore, advises the owners and agent of American vessels engaged in this trade to leave their masters free to make new charters in Demerara, instead of chartering for the round trip in the United States. Chartered made at Demerara for New York and Philadelphia, on the first of September, were at the rates of thirteen to fifteen cents per 100 pounds.

The Forthcoming Fidelity Dividend. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Out of $1,400,000 in the United States treasury to the credit of the Fidelity bank of Cincinnati, $60,000 will be paid out October 31 as a 25 per cent dividend to depositors, 1,227 of whom have proved their claims. The payment of several big claims against the bank will be contested. Among them are the four claims of $100,000 each and the letter of credit of $200,000 which Joe Whitcomb and Al Gahr took to Chicago to save the wheat deal. The claim of $700,000 borrowed from New York on the paper of the Fidelity, will also be resisted. The amount of government money held by the Fidelity was $34,000, secured by bonds deposited at Washington.

Presidential Pardons. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The president today pardoned Henry G. Curkendall, convicted in Michigan of having counterfeited coin in his possession. He also commuted the sentence of William S. Kirker, Ohio; Hunter Poor Bear, Cherokee Nation; and George S. Irwin, of Colorado, convicted of violation of the banking, pension and postal laws respectively.

Pension Officers Examined. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Samuel R. Downey, of Indiana; O. W. Farrar, of New Hampshire; William H. Harshberger, of Illinois; Alvah W. Jones, of Minnesota; John F. Mahon, of Illinois; and E. H. Cummings, of Virginia, have been appointed special examiners in the pension office under civil service rules.

All Quiet at the Crow Agency. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Adj. Gen. Drum has received a dispatch from Gen. Terry, saying that affairs are quiet at the Crow Agency, and no trouble is apprehended. A sufficient force has gone to the scene.

A Crooked Pension Agent. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The pension office has been informed of the arrest and indictment at Orrick, Mo., of John Mason, for forgery and preventing a false and fraudulent pension claim.

The Cabinet Meeting. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—A cabinet meeting was held today at which all the members were present, except Secretary Whitney, who is detained in New York by indisposition.

REMARKABLE SALE OF BANK STOCK.

Shares Worth $1,800 Bring $44,350 in a Fight to Retain Control of the Bank. Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 26.—When C. W. Fonda, defaulting cashier of the Constantine (St. Joseph county) National bank, absconded five years ago, he left ten shares of $100 each in stock to cover an apparent deficiency. These the bank attached and finally bid in for $1,000. Since then two factions have arisen in the bank, culminating in the displacement of one under the leadership of C. W. Fonda, a long time president, by a faction under the leadership of C. H. Barry, Jr., at the election last January.

Recently Homer A. Nash, bank examiner for Michigan, discovered these shares as illegally figuring in the assets of the bank, and reported the fact to the comptroller of the currency. That functionary ordered their sale at public auction to the highest bidder.

The sale took place Saturday, and excitement at Constantine was at white heat. Possession of seven of these shares would give the Fonda faction control, and at the sale a struggle took place for supremacy. The stock was worth $100 per share. This the unsold, with Barry as spokesman, and the out, by J. G. Schurts, went $1 better. This rivalry continued until $500 had been reached, when a Mrs. Thorne took Barry's place, making $1 bids until she had bid $1,000, when she stopped, and Schurts raised her $1 and took the first share at $1,000.

In like manner the sale proceeded, the remaining shares selling at $2,000, $3,000, $3,141, $3,344, $3,501, $3,900, $4,000, $4,271 and $12,000 respectively. Barry capturing the last and retaining the presidency and control. These shares, worth only $1,800, sold for $44,350.

A Boy's Horrible Fate.

New York, Oct. 26.—Thirteen-year-old Joseph Berger, of 59 Avenue C, was missed from his parents' home last Saturday, and was reported to the police as missing. Yesterday morning some workmen entered the cellar of the cooper shop at 719 Fifth street and there found the boy's body in an advanced stage of decomposition and his face eaten by rats. How he got into the cellar, or in what manner he met his death, is still a mystery. An investigation is to be made. It is learned in explanation of the boy's death that on Saturday he carried a lunch-box to his father, who was working in a cooper shop. The boy remained about, and many times went out to a neighboring school for beer for the workmen. He is believed each time to have himself taken a sip until he became intoxicated. Evidently he wandered to the cellar, where he was found, and there fell into a drunken sleep, in which he is believed to have expired before the rats attacked him. This belief is based on the fact that the wounds upon his face had not bled.
